She is very hardworking and kind teacher her way of teaching is very good thanks ma'am to teach us 😊

Need to improve teaching techniques

Though she has good knowledge of her subject but she's is not able to deliver it properly. In my opinion she doesn't fit to be a teacher as after attending her classes I observed that she expects students to know everything by themselves and is not able to clear their doubts.

She may have subject knowledge but she doesn't know how to teach, she would come into class, put no efforts in ppts as they were all copied from YouTube, she would then go through each slide telling us that you have already studied it in your bsc so i won't explain it and the topics which were new to us she would again show us the silde and tell us to study them I understand that she had family issues due to which she couldn't take our classes for almost 2 months but when she returned which was just before our exams she took 2 lectures and completed 3 Major units and that's how our course was completed so i would not recommend her for future batch of students neither woh i prefer her for further semesters

Over all , kusum ma'am teaches in such a way that,the harder topics actually turns into easier, I had learned so much from you ma'am.

Thank you ma'am for teaching me

Ppts could have been more proper for reference
