Teacher's Day Celebrations, 2019

School of Biotechnology, DAVV solemnly celebrated Teacher's Day with great gusto and gaiety on September 5, 2019. The guests for the day, Dr. Anjana Jajoo, Dr. Anil Kumar, all the professors and PhD scholars of the SBT department were heartily welcomed by the students with roses and tilak ceremony. Students performed a scintillating show to devote their respect, acknowledgement and recognition of their hard work.

The program was led off by lighting the lamp and Saraswati Vandana. Thereafter the university Kulgeet mesmerized the arena and everyone felt pride in its glory. The hosts then gave the audience a peek into the life of Dr. S. Radhakrishnan on whose account the day was celebrated. This was followed by warming speeches by Dr. Anjana Jajoo and Dr. Anil Kumar respectively. As the speeches concluded, the cultural show began, incorporating poems, songs, dances, and stand-up comedy. The students entertained everyone by arranging fun games for the teachers. The refreshments were served during the games.

The students expressed that teachers play a vital role in making their pupils accountable citizens of tomorrow and wonderful human beings. They are the cornerstone of their student's future and there is nothing worth enough to gratify them for their selfless service and commitment.

Everyone enjoyed and appreciated the program. It concluded with teachers sharing their lifetime experiences and then they were given a token of love by their beloved students. Finally, everyone gathered on the porch and grooved to the beats of dhols and enjoyed the joyous moments.

Cleanliness after the program was taken care of very well of and students ensured that the decorum of the institution is maintained.
