

Report

A program was organised by Women task force of Devi Ahilya University on 9th feb.2023, 11.30 AM, to launch the book entitled “Indian women, feminism and Women’s Liberation” written by Shri Sajji Narayanan CK ji. The programme was also organised at Ramani Hall of School of Computer Science and Information technology, DAVV, Indore. The programme was graced by acting Vice Chancellor of DAVV Dr. Sumant katiyal, Registrar Mr. Ajay Verma, Ms Shobha Paithankar, Rashtriya mahila Sanyojak Shaiksha Sanskriti uttan Nyas, New Delhi.

The program was attended by more than 150 students form different departments of DAVV. The program started with Kulgeet, followed by Sarasvati Aradhana. A formal welcome of the guests by giving flower bouquet was done. A welcome address was given by Dr. Anjana Jajoo, Coordinator, Women task force, DAVV. She told about the activities of Women task force of DAVV and explained how this book launch is an important event in this context. This was followed by address by Dr. Sumant Katiyal who explained how man and woman are equal and necessary for smooth running of the society. Ms. Shobha Paithankar gave a brief biography of Shri Sajji Narayanan ji, about his glorious works and positions held.

Book launch took place by all the dignitaries present on the stage. This was followed by address by the renowned author of this book Shri Sajji Narayanan ji. He, in very simple language, gave a lecture to the students describing his motivation for writing this book. He briefly told about various aspects of women contributions in ancient India giving interesting examples and stories. This way of his lecture kept the students engaged in the lecture totally.

The program was compered in a very impressive manner by Dr. Sonali Nargunde, HOD of department of Journalism and Mass communication. Vote of Thanks was given by registrar of DAVV, Mr. Ajay Verma.