Who is the best scientist in Devi Ahilya Vishwavidyalaya? Finally, the answer is out. It is professor Anjana Jajoo, a faculty member with the School of Life Sciences and head of the School of Biotechnology. She has been ranked as the best scientist of DAVV in the AD Scientific Index-Scientists Rankings, 2022, which were declared on Saturday.

The ranking is based on her performance (quality research papers, H-index, i-10 index and number of citations) in the past 5 years. Jajoo has been rated as the best scientist in DAVV among all disciplines (Science, Arts, Commerce, Engineering and Management). She holds good ranking in the list of top Indian scientists in the field of plant sciences.
